Politics
Aesthetics
20. Romanticism as the conceptual school of art (12.2)
19. The nature of art, and its role in man's life (12.1)
18. Capitalism as the only moral system (11.1)
17. The proper functions of government (10.2)
16. The validation of individual rights (10.1)
This chart based on "Understanding Objectivism," list on pages 162-163, remark about an "X" on page 161. Numbers in parentheses refer to chapters and sections in OPAR.
15. The evil of the initiation of force (8.7)
14. The virtue of honesty (8.3)
Ethics
13. The virtue of independence (8.1)
12. Rationality as the primary virtue (7.3)
11. Man's life as the standard of moral virtue (7.2)
10. The integration of man's mind and body (ch. 6)
9. Reason as man's means of survival (6.2)
Man
8. The law of cause and effect (1.2)
7. Knowledge as objective (versus intrinsic or subjective) (ch 4)
6. Concepts as identifications of concretes with their measurements omitted (3.2, 3.3)
Epistemology
5. The senses as valid (2.1)
4. Reason as man's only means of knowledges; reason versus mysticism (5.2, 5.5)
Metaphysics
3. A is A (1.1)
2. Consciousness as the faculty of perceiving that which exists (1.1)
1. Existence exists (1.1)
This chart prepared by David P. Hayes